A further prayer has been made to quash the order dated 14.11.2024 (Annexure P-7) passed by the Court of Additional Sessions Judge, Kurukshetra, whereby the application for dispensing with 20% of the compensation amount was ordered to be dismissed.

Challenging the validity of the judgment passed by the trial Court, the petitioner had filed a CRA-272-2023 titled as “Iqbal Saini Vs. M/s Harjeet Singh” before the Court of Additional Sessions Judge, Kurukshetra and the Appellate Court had suspended the sentence imposed on the petitioner/appellant, till the disposal of the appeal. He was ordered to be released on bail, subject to furnishing of bail bonds in the sum of Rs.50,000/-, with one surety in the like amount, within a period of one month to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court/Duty Magistrate alongwith imposing another condition of paying 20% of the compensation amount, within a period of 60 days, in view of Section 148(1) of the Negotiable Instruments (Amendment) Act, 2018.

3. On advance notice, Mr. Jarnail Singh Saneta, Advocate has appeared on behalf of the respondent, by filing his Power of Attorney and the same is taken on record.

4. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record carefully.

Still further prayed that since the appeal is pending since long, appropriate directions may kindly be issued to the Appellate Court to decide the appeal within a certain stipulated time period.

6. In view of the submissions made by learned counsel for the parties, the impugned order dated 08.09.2023 (Annexure P-4) and order dated 14.11.2024 (Annexure P-7) passed by the Court of Additional Sessions Judge, Kurukshetra are set aside and the petitioner shall be exempted from depositing 20% of the amount of compensation during the pendency of the appeal, before the Appellate Court. However, it is clarified that this Court has not considered the merits of the case and the present order is being passed only with the consent and joint request of both the parties.

7. Since the complaint was initially filed in the year 2018 and a period of 7 years has lapsed, after the institution of the complaint, the Appellate Court is directed to decide the appeal within a period of 04 months from the next date of hearing fixed before it.
