ANIL KSHETARPAL, J. (Oral)

1. Learned counsel for the appellant has drawn the attention of the Court to the following order passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court on 07.05.2024:-

"1. Leave granted.

2. Both the parties are present before the court and after due deliberation they have agreed for a final settlement. The terms of settlement, as agreed, are as follows:

(i) The respondent-husband will pay a total amount of Rs.75,00,000/- (Rupees seventy five lakhs only) to the appellant-wife, stretched over a period of one year i.e. upto 31.05.2025. The payment schedule would be as follows:

(a) Rs. 15,00,000/- to be paid as first installment on or before 30.06.2024.

(b) The remaining amount of Rs.60,00, 000/- would be paid in five equal installments of Rs. 12,00,000/- each, to be paid every two months, i.e. on or before 30.09.2024, 30.11.2024, 31.01.2025, 31.03.2025 and 31.05.2025 respectively.

(ii) The decree of divorce granted by the Family Court, against which an appeal is pending before the High Court, would stand modified that the decree would be deemed to be a decree of divorce by mutual consent as this would wipe out all the allegations against the respective parties.

(iii) The criminal case registered by the appellant-wife against the respondent-husband and his family members would stand closed upon payment of the total amount, as settled above.

(iv) The requirement of taking permission from the Trial/Criminal Court, where the criminal case is pending, to travel abroad would be granted by the said Court and the appellant-wife has already stated that her counsel would not be objecting to it.

(v) The Criminal Revision arising out of the proceedings under Section 125 Cr.P.C. would also stand closed.

(vi) The proof of payment of each installment paid to the appellant by the respondent would be filed before this Court within ten days of the last date of payment of installment.

(vii) The pending cases before the Criminal Revision Court, the Trial/Criminal Court and the High Court would remain stayed till 31.05.2025, whereafter the respective Courts shall pass formal orders closing all the proceedings.

(viii) Both the parties shall file an affidavit accepting the aforesaid terms and conditions within a week from today before the Registry of this Court, to be retained on record.

3. The terms of settlement as recorded above be treated as direction of this Court.

4. The appeal stand disposed of as above.

5. Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.”

2. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that in view of the aforesaid order, the cause for filing the present appeal does not survive.

3. Disposed of accordingly.
4. All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
