As nobody was appearing on behalf of the appellant-Corporation and even mobile number of the counsel for the appellant was not available in the bar directory, notice was issued to the said Corporation, which surprisingly was received back unserved without any report. Thereafter, notice was issued to the Managing Director of the appellant-Corporation at its Jaipur address and thereafter, Mr. AK Gehlawat, Advocate appeared on 27.03.2025 and sought adjournment to get instructions in the matter. On the adjourned date, learned counsel for the appellant-Corporation did not appear and in his place, Mr. Kamal Sharma, Advocate appeared as proxy counsel and sought a date. The matter was adjourned to today when the proxy counsel undertook to ensure the presence of counsel for the appellant for today. However, nobody has put in appearance even today in spite of a clear stipulation as contained in order dated 01.05.2025 that if nobody appears on behalf of the appellant-Corporation, the file will be consigned to record.

In the circumstances, it appears that the appellant-Corporation has lost interest in the appeal. The appeal is, therefore, consigned to record. Liberty is, however, reserved to the appellant-Corporation to get the appeal revived by moving an appropriate application.

A copy of this order be given to learned counsel for the parties. A copy of this order be also sent at the last known address of the appellant-Corporation.
