I.O. has been put up with a note of the Registry that as per status of the matter, ITC No.125 of 1992 is reflected to be disposed of. Case file of above-mentioned ITC was burnt in the fire which took place on the premises of the High Court and no document thereof including orders, is available. It is, further, recorded that despite best efforts, file could not be reconstructed and neither is order of disposal available on record. As per noting dated 19.09.2024, it is recorded that action with regard to reconstruction have been taken, under various orders passed by authorities at different intervals, but no response/document has been received from any quarter concerned. It is also recorded that notice of 15 days was given on website of this Court for reconstruction of judgment.

Keeping in view the above, it is directed that in view of status report of the matter, ITC No.125 of 1992 be treated to be disposed of. Liberty is, however, reserved to the parties to file appropriate application along-with all relevant documents, in case of anything to the contrary.

IOIN is disposed of.
