Since none had been appearing on behalf of the appellants (in all the cases), notices were issued to them to appear in person before this Forum to explore the possibility of settlement. As per office report, notice issued to appellant (in FAO-5156-2008) has not been served as colony has been demolished and the appellants in (FAO-5157-2008 and FAO-5158-2008) has not been served due to incomplete address.

Today, Mr. N.S. Ghumman, proxy counsel for the appellants states that he has not been able to contact the appellants for the purpose of settlement and request that the cases be consigned to record room with liberty to revive it whenever the appellants contact him.

Accordingly, on the request of learned counsel for the appellants the cases is consigned to record room with the liberty aforestated.

A photocopy of this order be placed on the file of connected cases.
