AVNEESH JHINGAN, J. (Oral)

The issue involved in the writ petition filed by the petitioner was that the services rendered by the petitioner in the privately managed Government aided Schools be counted for the purpose of pension and retiral benefits. The petition was allowed in 16.01.2012 in terms of the decision of this Court in Vijay Singh Versus State of Haryana and others, 2009 (4) S.C.T. 32. The decision of this Court was that the entire services rendered by the petitioner in a privately managed government aided school shall be counted for the purpose of pension and retiral benefits.

There is no dispute to the effect that the benefits were released during the pendency of the contempt petition.

The only issue surviving is that vide order dated 16.01.2014, Annexure R-1 with the reply, the benefits have been released to the petitioner but after deducting the employers share of CPF alongwith 10% annual compound interest.

In view of the fact that there is substantial compliance of directions of this Court, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks liberty to avail remedies in accordance with law against the charging of 10% annual compound interest.

Disposed of with liberty as prayed for.
