

501 IOIN-1-FAO-3170-2002 in
FAO-3170-2002

SHIV NARAIN VS. DESH RAJ

Present: None.

*****

This case was disposed of vide order dated 08.03.2025 passed in National Lok Adalat by enhancing the compensation amount of Rs.1,00,000/- over and above the amount awarded by the Tribunal.

As per office report, the requisite cheque bearing No.016185 amounting to Rs.1,00,000/- in the name of appellant-Dr. Shiv Narayan son of Tek Chauhan deposited by respondent No.7-The Insurance Company is lying with the office.

It has been further reported that nobody has turned up to collect the said cheque despite making repeated calls to the learned counsel for the appellant Mr. Adish Gupta and issuance of notice to the appellant namely Dr. Shiv Narayan at the address given in the memorandum of parties in the Registry, as notices issued to appellant have been received back unserved with the report that appellant had already left the address 15 years ago. It has also been reported that validity of the cheque has already expired.

In these circumstances, let the cheque be retained in the Registry which shall be disbursed to the appellant as and when application in this regard is moved.

IOIN stands disposed of.
