

101+216 EA-26-2019
In CMM-132-2014 and CM-18622-CII-2024 and
CM-18623-CII-2024
In FAO-M-313-2014

Ranjit Kaur Versus Gurnam Singh

Present : Ms. Kashish Aggarwal, Advocate for the applicant.
(Through VC).

Mr. Ajay Pal Singh Rehan, Advocate for Mr. R.K. Arya, Advocate for respondent.

****

1. This is an application for execution of order granting interim maintenance.
2. Learned counsel representing the appellant submits that the total arrears as of today are Rs.43,000/- approximately.
3. Learned counsel representing the respondent has handed over Rs.25,000/- in cash to learned counsel representing the appellant. Learned counsel representing the respondent undertakes that the respondent will pay the remaining amount within a period of next 10 days.
4. In view of the above observations, the execution petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to file an application for revival, if the cause for filing the execution petition survives.
5. Pending miscellaneous applications, if any, shall also stands disposed of.

(ANIL KSHETARPAL)
JUDGE

(ROHIT KAPOOR)
JUDGE

July 03, 2025
ajaysharma