CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE KIRTI SINGH

Present: Mr.Puneet Kakkar, Advocate for for the petitioner.

Mr.Brijesh Sharma, AAG, Haryana

Mr.Vijender Kumar Rana, Advocate for respondent No.2.

KIRTI SINGH, J.(Oral)

1. The present petition has been filed under Section 528 BNSS for quashing of FIR No.299, dated 28.03.2018 (Annexure P-1), registered under Sections 323, 34, 376, 452, 506, 511 IPC (Later on Sections 376 and 511 IPC have been deleted) at Police Station Chandnibagh District Panipat (Annexure P-1) and all other consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 02.05.2025 (Annexure P-3) arrived at between the parties.

2. Heard learned counsel for the parties and also gone through the case file.

3. Vide order dated 01.09.2025, passed by this Court, parties were directed to appear before the Area Magistrate/trial Court for recording their statements with regard to the compromise.

4. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, a report dated 25.09.2025 has been received from the Addl. Chief Judicial Magistrate, Panipat. A perusal of the report reveals that the statements of the concerned persons have been recorded in the present case, wherein they have stated that the matter has been amicably settled between them and that they have no objection if the FIR in question is quashed. The compromise has been found to be genuine and without any undue influence or coercion. It is also evident from the statements recorded by the trial Court that the injured, Manisha, has made a statement affirming the compromise and expressing no objection to the quashing of the FIR. However, since she was not impleaded as a party-respondent in the present petition, on the oral request of learned counsel for the petitioner, injured Manisha is impleaded as respondent No. 4. The Registry is directed to carry out the necessary correction in the memo of parties

5. The Full Bench of this Court in Kulwinder Singh and others vs. State of Punjab, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, held that High Court has power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to allow the compounding of non-compoundable offence and quash the proceedings where the High Court is of the view that the same was required to prevent the abuse of the process of law or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. This power of quashing is not confined to matrimonial disputes alone.

6. Hon'ble the Supreme Court in the case of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543, had observed that in order to secure the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of process of Court, inherent power can be used by this Court to quash criminal proceedings in which a compromise has been effected. The relevant portion of para 57 of the said judgment reads thus:-

“57. The position that emerges from the above discussion can be summarised thus: the power of the High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is distinct and different from the power given to a criminal court for compounding the offences under Section 320 of the Code.

Inherent power is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation but it has to be exercised in accord with the guideline engrafted in such power viz; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any Court.

xxx xxxxxx. ”

7. In view of the afore-referred judgments and after perusing the report of the trial Court regarding amicable settlement between the petitioner and the complainant, this Court finds that quashing the FIR will accord a quietus to all disputes between the parties and it is in the interest of both sides to bury the hatchet and lead a peaceful life. Thus, no useful purpose would be served in continuing the proceedings and in order to secure the ends of justice, the criminal proceedings in the present case deserve to be quashed.

8. Resultantly, the present petition is allowed and FIR No.299, dated 28.03.2018 (Annexure P-1), registered under Sections 323, 34, 376, 452, 506, 511 IPC (Later on Sections 376 and 511 IPC have been deleted) at Police Station Chandnibagh District Panipat (Annexure P-1) and all other consequential proceedings arising therefrom are quashed qua petitioners on the basis of compromise dated 02.05.2025 (Annexure P-3) effected between the parties subject to the costs of Rs. 20,000/- to be deposited in the Poor Patient Welfare Fund, PGIMER, Chandigarh within one month.

Pending application(s), if any, also stands disposed of accordingly.
