VIKAS BAHL, J. (ORAL)

1. Present Criminal Writ Petition has been filed under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India for extension of emergency parole due to death of his daughter Kamaldeep Kaur, which took place in London, (UK) on 26.05.2025 and dead body arrived in India on 15.06.2025 as the petitioner granted emergency parole of 21 days by office of the District Magistrate, Ambala vide order dated 03.06.2025 (Annexure P-2) from 04.06.2025 to 24.06.2025.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that daughter of the petitioner had died in London on 26.05.2025 and dead body arrived in India on 15.06.2025 and her bhog ceremony is to be performed on 29.06.2025 and barsi is to be performed on 13.07.2025 and for the said purpose, has referred to Annexure P-6. It is further submitted that the petitioner vide order dated 03.06.2025 (Annexure P-2) was granted three weeks emergency parole, after taking into consideration the fact that his daughter has died and the same was granted after the petitioner had furnished two sureties i.e. of Dalbir Singh and Jaswant Singh, who had jointly submitted a surety bond of Rs.2,00,000/- each and had further given personal bond. It is also submitted that the said emergency parole is to be elapsed on 24.06.2025. It is stated that at the time of grant of emergency parole, the fact that the dead body of the daughter of the petitioner would come to India on 15.06.2025 was not known to the petitioner and the same is a subsequent event. It is further stated that the presence of the father in the last ceremonies of his daughter is necessary and has thus prayed that in the said exceptional facts and circumstances, the emergency parole granted to the petitioner till 24.06.2025 be extended till 14.07.2025 and the petitioner undertakes to surrender before the Jail Authorities at 12.00 PM on 14.07.2025.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the State has submitted that even in case the parole is to be extended, then, either the petitioner be directed to get the surety bond submitted by the earlier sureties extended or the extension be done on furnishing of two fresh sureties. It is further submitted that a personal bond be also furnished by the petitioner.

4. Keeping in view the above-said exceptional facts and circumstances in the present case, the present petition is partly allowed with the following directions: -

- (i) The emergency parole granted vide order dated 03.06.2025 by the City Magistrate, Ambala up to 24.06.2025 is extended till 12.00 PM, 14.07.2025.
- (ii) Petitioner would furnish fresh surety of Daljit Singh and Jaswant Singh, who would further be required to submit the surety bond of Rs.2,00,000/- each or in the alternative produce two other persons, who would stand surety in favour of the petitioner and are ready to submit surety bond of Rs.2,00,000/- each as was done at the time of passing of the order dated 03.06.2025. The petitioner would also submit a personal bond. The surety/surety bond/personal bond would be submitted before the City Magistrate, Ambala on or before 24.06.2025 and it is only on the submission of the same that the emergency parole would be extended.
