ARCHANA PURI, J. (Oral)

As per the observations made in the order dated 22.07.2025, despite service, the respondent did not make appearance on that date. Even today, he has not made appearance. As such, the respondent is proceeded against ex parte.

Counsel for the applicant heard.

The applicant-wife has filed the present application for seeking transfer of the petition under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act i.e. HMA/327/2023, titled 'Vikash Vs. Lakshmi Rani', filed by the respondent-husband, pending in the Family Court, Jhajjar and she seeks transfer of the same to the Court of competent jurisdiction at Hansi, District Hisar.

TA-548-2025

It is submitted by the counsel for the applicant that the marriage between the parties to the lis, had taken place on 25.02.2015. Two children born from the said wedlock, are in the care and custody of the applicant. Both the parties are residing separate, on account of matrimonial dispute. The applicant has no source of earning and as such, she, together with the children, is dependent upon her parental family. Even, she had filed the petition under Section 125 Cr.P.C., which is pending in the Courts at Hansi and the respondent is making appearance in the same, though he is not paying any maintenance to the applicant or the children. Also, it is submitted that after filing of the present application, the petition under the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, has also been filed by the applicant and the same is also pending in the Courts at Hansi. The distance between the two places is stated to be 110 kilometres.

In view of the mitigating circumstances, as spelt out aforesaid and also taking into consideration the fact about the respondent having not come forward to resist the application, more particularly, considering the fact of two children residing with the applicant, who herself has no source of earning, the transfer application is allowed and the petition under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act i.e. HMA/327/2023, titled 'Vikash Vs. Lakshmi Rani', filed by the respondent-husband, stands transferred from the Family Court, Jhajjar, to the Court of competent jurisdiction at Hansi, District Hisar. The requisite record of the aforesaid case be sent by the Family Court, Jhajjar, to the District and Sessions Judge, Hisar.

Learned District and Sessions Judge, Hisar, shall assign the said petition to the Family Court (Camp Court) Hansi. Even, the parties are directed to appear before the Family Court (Camp Court) Hansi, within a period of one month from today onwards.
