AMAN CHAUDHARY, J. (Oral)

1. Prayer in the present petition filed under Section 483 BNSS, 2023, is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.20 dated 19.10.2022, registered under Section 7 of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 as amended by Prevention of Corruption (Amendment) Act, 2018 and Sections 420, 465, 466, 468, 471, 120-B IPC, at Police Station Vigilance Bureau, Range, Amritsar.
2. Learned counsel contends that the petitioner has been in custody for last 2 months. He is a private individual working as a peasant and not a beneficiary. He was roped only on account of the fact that his three relatives were involved in the case i.e. his brother-Briznave Singh along with Lakhbir Singh who was a beneficiary, also named in the FIR, granted bail vide order dated 13.12.2022 (Annexure P13) after being in custody for about 55 days; and wife of the petitioner as also that of his brother, granted anticipatory bail vide order dated 21.03.2023 (Annexure P11). Besides, co-accused Sukhev Singh, Sukhjit Singh, Ranjit Singh and Dalbir Singh have been granted bail on 21.03.2023 and 22.12.2022. He is not involved in any other case. Charges have been framed on 25.08.2025 and in all there are 20 prosecution witnesses.

3. The custody certificate dated 23.09.2025, filed by the learned State counsel is taken on record. As per the same, the petitioner is behind bars for 2 months and 6 days.

4. Learned State counsel opposes the bail on the ground that the petitioner had actively participated in the commission of offence with the co-accused. However, he is unable to controvert the submissions with regard to stage of the case, he being not involved in any other case and co-accused having been granted bail.

5. Heard.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, in particular that the petitioner is in custody for last 2 months and 6 days; not involved in any other case; co-accused have been granted bail; Charges have recently been framed on 25.08.2025 and there are a total of 20 prosecution witnesses, the trial is likely to take a considerable time, further incarceration of the petitioner would be violative of his right enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, the present petition is allowed.

7. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail, subject to furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, if not required in any other case and shall abide by the following conditions:-

- (i) The petitioner will not tamper with the evidence during the trial.
- (ii) The petitioner will not pressurize/ intimidate the prosecution witnesses.
- (iii) The petitioner will appear before the trial Court on each and every date fixed, unless is exempted by a specific order of Court.

- (iv) The petitioner shall not commit an offence similar to the offence of which, he is an accused, or for commission of which he is suspected of.
- (v) The petitioner shall not directly or indirectly coerce, induce, threaten or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/ her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence in any manner.
- (vi) The petitioner shall not in any manner misuse his liberty.
- (vii) The petitioner shall furnish his address and mobile number by way of an affidavit to the trial Court and not change the same till conclusion of trial and if for any reasons, he seeks to change either of the aforesaid, it shall be done only with prior information to the learned trial Court.
- (viii) The petitioner shall not leave the country without prior permission of the trial Court.
- (ix) The trial Court/Duty Magistrate may impose any other condition, as deemed appropriate while releasing the petitioner.

8. It is made abundantly clear that in case there is any breach of the aforesaid conditions, the State shall be at liberty to seek cancellation of bail as granted to the petitioner by this order.

9. In view of the above, it is clarified that the observations made herein above are limited for the purpose of present proceedings and would not be construed as any opinion on the merits of the case and the trial would proceed independently of the aforesaid observations.
