1. In the present petition, the challenge is to the seniority granted to the private respondents over and above the petitioners.

2. As per the respondents, the change of the seniority is keeping in view the order passed by this Court in the case of one Sh. Megh Raj, who was similarly situated as petitioner, whose claim for seniority over and above the private respondents has been held against him and, therefore, the petitioners have also been not granted the benefit of seniority over the private respondents keeping in view the pronouncement of this Court in LPA No. 292 of 1984, decided on 17.07.1992.

3. No one has appeared on behalf of the petitioners. It can be safely presumed that the petitioners are not interesting in pursuing the present remedy as, the petitioners have already retired.

4. Keeping in view the above, the present petitions are dismissed for non-prosecution.

5. Pending miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.

6. A photocopy of this order be placed on the file of connected cases.
