CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN

Present:- Mr. Ashish Aggarwal, Sr. Advocate with Mr. Gaurav Arora, Advocate,
Ms. Aashna Aggarwal, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Sunil Chadha, Sr. Advocate with Mr. Kashish Aggarwal, Advocate for the respondents.

ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN, J. (Oral)

During the course of arguments, it transpires that the civil suit, filed by respondent No. 1-Amarjeet Singh against the petitioner, was partly decreed with an observation that the truck union is in possession of the property, however, in an appeal filed by the petitioner, the said finding was reversed and it was held that the petitioner is in possession of the plot in dispute. Thereafter, RSA-2780-2022 is filed before this Court, wherein, vide order dated 20.12.2022, it is directed that status quo shall be maintained with regard to title as well as possession of the property in dispute and the same is still pending.

The present contempt petition has been filed by the petitioner alleging that the plot in dispute is under the lock and key of the petitioner, however, the respondents have additionally put a lock over the lock of the petitioner.

Though the possession over the property in question is disputed by both the parties, however, learned senior counsel for the respondents submits that without admitting the legal possession of the petitioner, subject to final outcome of the said RSA, the respondents will remove their lock from the property in dispute, subject to the condition that the petitioner will not raise any construction over the property in dispute except cleaning of the plot.

In view of the same, no further action is called for in the present petition and the same is disposed of.

Rule stands discharged.

The respondents will remove their lock from the property in dispute, within a period of two days from today.
