2.            Registry has published the defects and made them known to learned counsel for the petitioner, but to no avail.
3.            This petition with defects is pending in the docket of the High Court, since the date of its filing.
4.            In view of the above, it is obvious that the petitioner does not wish to remove the defects and, therefore, the review application stands disposed of and is ordered to be consigned to the record room.
