The instant contempt petition was filed asserting willful disobedience of the judgement dated 15.1.2014, passed by a Division Bench of this Court in CWP No.1224 of 2001.

Suffice it to notice that challenge in the petition was to a resumption order passed by the respondent authorities in respect of built up booth no.89 in Sector 15, Panchkula. Such resumption order was set aside by the Division Bench subject to the condition that the petitioners would pay a penalty of Rs.5 lacs in lump sum to H.U.D.A within one year and in two half yearly installments.

Learned counsel appearing for respondents no.1 and 2 has produced in Court today an order bearing memo no.7264-66 dated 1.7.2014, issued by the Estate Officer, H.U.D.A, Panchkula in terms of which the booth in question stands restored in favour of the petitioners and subject to the decision/outcome of S.L.P filed by the H.U.D.A against the judgement dated 15.1.2014, passed by a Division Bench in CWP No.1224 of 2001. Copy of such order has been furnished to learned counsel for the petitioners.

In the light of the factual position noticed herein above, the instant contempt petition has been rendered infructuous and is disposed of accordingly.

Rule discharged.
