HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI, J. (Oral)

1. In the present appeal, the challenge is to the judgment dated 21.01.2025 passed by the learned Single Judge by which, the partition which has been effected, is causing prejudice to the appellants and therefore, the same should be set aside.

2. Learned counsel for the appellants submits that the learned Single Judge has not appreciated all the facts and therefore, the judgment dated 21.01.2025 of the learned Single Judge may kindly be set aside.

3. We have heard learned counsel for the appellants and have gone through the record with his able assistance.

4. It may be noticed that the learned Single Judge has recorded the finding that the appellants herein never raised any objection to the proposed Naksha Kha and Naksh Ga and ultimately, on the basis of the same, the partition was finalized. The learned Single Judge has held that, once no objection was raised to the proposal which led to the findings of partition, ultimate partition order cannot be challenged.

LPA-2096-2025 (O&M)

5. On being asked to point out as to how the said finding is perverse either on facts or law, learned counsel for the appellants has not been able to show any such perversity either on facts or law qua the findings recorded by the learned Single Judge.
6. No ground is made out for any interference by this Court in the facts and circumstances of the present case.
7. Accordingly, the appeal is dismissed.
8. Civil miscellaneous application pending if any, also stands disposed of.
