Appellant No.2, as also respondent No.2 are stated to have passed away.

2. Repeated requests for adjournments have been made to bring on record their legal representatives. However, the needful has not been done. The appeal pertains to the year 2018 and is still fixed for preliminary arguments.

3. Primarily, it was the duty of the legal representatives of appellant No.2 to have approached the Court and got himself/themselves impleaded once appellant No.2 had expired.

4. In view thereof, no further adjournment deserves to be granted. The appeal is accordingly dismissed for non-prosecution. However, liberty is granted to the parties to move an appropriate application for revival of the appeal within a period of three months in case they are interested in pursuing the same.

Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
