VINOD

...PETITIONER

VERSUS

STATE OF HARYANA

...RESPONDENT

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANOOP CHITKARA

Present: Mr.Sandeep Singh Majithia, Advocate for the petitioner.

Dr. Jasmine Gill, AAG, Haryana.

ANOOP CHITKARA, J. (ORAL)

FIR No.	Dated	Police Station	Sections
266	04.06.2024	Hisar City, District Hisar	18(b) of NDPS Act (Sections 27A and 29 of NDPS Act added later on)

1. The petitioner incarcerated in the FIR captioned above had come up before this Court under Section 483 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, [BNSS], seeking regular bail.
2. Per paragraph 21 of the bail petition and para 23 (E) of the status report, the petitioner has no criminal antecedents.
3. The facts and allegations are taken from the reply filed by the State. On 04.06.2024, based on a chance recovery, the Police seized 2 kg 654 grams of opium from the possession of the co-accused, namely, Raju Bairagi, Kamla Bai, Lalita Devi and Sunil Kumar. The Investigator claims to have complied with all the statutory requirements of the NDPS Act, 1985, and CrPC, 1973.
4. During custodial interrogation, the main accused, confessed before the Police officer that the petitioner was involved in the business of supplying drugs. Based on such confession before the police, the petitioner was arraigned as an accused.
5. The petitioner's counsel seeks bail on the grounds of prolonged pretrial custody.
6. Counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was not named in the FIR. His name surfaced on the basis of disclosure statement of the co-accused from which recovery had been effected. The petitioner's counsel prays for bail by imposing any stringent conditions and contends that further pre-trial incarceration would cause an irreversible injustice to the petitioner and their family.

7. The petitioner's counsel submits that the petitioner would have no objection whatsoever to any stringent conditions that this Court may impose, including that if the petitioner repeats the offense or commits any non-bailable offense which provides for a sentence of imprisonment for more than seven years, or commits any offence under the NDPS Act, where the quantity involved is more than half of the intermediate, or commercial quantity, or violates S. 19, or 24, or 27-A of the NDPS Act, the State may file an application to revoke this bail before the concerned Special Judge or Sessions Court having jurisdiction over this FIR, which shall have the authority to cancel this bail, and may do so at their discretion, to which the petitioner shall have no objection.

8. The State's counsel opposes bail and refers to the reply.

9. It would be appropriate to refer to the following portions of status report which reads as follows:

“THE ROLE OF THE PETITIONER:

That the petitioner-accused Vinod played a crucial role in the illicit drug trafficking operation. His involvement became evident through the disclosure statement of co-accused Raju Bairagi, who, specifically named Vinod Sharma (present petitioner) with whom, he (accused Raju Bairagi) had conversations for purchasing narcotic substances on Vinod's mobile number 9098293061. Subsequently, on 21.06.2024, petitioner-accused Vinod was arrested and in his disclosure statement, admitted to purchasing 2.650 Kg of Opium from an unknown person. He also got recovered his mobile phone (Vivo with SIM number 90982-93061), which he used for communication with co-accused Raju Bairagi. Furthermore, Call Detail Records (CDRs) of Vinod's mobile number and Raju Bairagi's mobile number corroborate multiple conversations between them, highlighting Vinod's direct and active participation in the conspiracy to procure and distribute illegal narcotics.”

REASONING:

10. Petitioner was not present at the spot from where the recovery has been effected. His name surfaced in the disclosure statement of co-accused.

11. Contents of para No.13, 14 and 15 of the status report, which reads as follows:

“13. That on 21.06.2024, petitioner-accused Vinod was arrested in accordance with law and he suffered disclosure statement (Annexure R-2) wherein he disclosed that "before 8/9days ago, he had purchased 2.650 Kg. Opium from an unknown person near Railway Station Shamgarh at the rate of Rs.80000/- per kg". Petitioner-accused Vinod also got recovered his mobile phone Vivo having sim number 90982-93061 from which he used to made conversation with co-accused Raju Bairagi.

14. That during investigation, samples were sent to RFSL Hisar and FSL report has been received in this case. As per FSL report, 'Opium' has been detected. True copy of FSL report dated 24.06.2024 is annexed herewith as Annexure R-3 for the kind perusal of the Hon'ble High Court.

15. That during investigation, it has been found that co-accused Jai Bhagwan got deposited Rs. 10000/- through CSC Centre in the mobile number 8956915978 of co-accused Raju Bairagi and during investigation, on 30.07.2024, Investigating Officer got recorded the statement of one Rubal son of Dara Singh resident of village Bhatla District Hisar who stated that he is running Common Service Centre since 5 years where many peoples came to send/withdraw the money. He further stated that on 26.04.2024, Jai Bhagwan (co-accused) came to his centre and he has asked me to transfer Rs. 10000/- in mobile number 8956915978 but he had not disclosed the name to whom he got transferred.”

12. Dealing in opium, without a license, constitutes an offense under the following provisions and notifications:

13. The quantity allegedly involved in this case is commercial. Given this, the rigors of S. 37 of the NDPS Act apply in the present case. The petitioner must satisfy the twin conditions set forth by the Legislature under Section 37 of the NDPS Act.

14. The evidence collected so far consists of disclosure statements and the petitioner's confession without discovering any facts. Such statements can be proven subject to the mandatory restrictions imposed in S. 25 & 26 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872/ S. 23 of BSA, 2023.

15. In Tofan Singh v. State of Tamil Nadu, (2021) 4 SCC 1, the majority view of a three-member bench holds as follows:

We answer the reference by stating:

(i) That the officers who are invested with powers under section 53 of the NDPS Act are "police officers" within the meaning of section 25 of the Evidence Act, as a result of which any confessional statement made to them would be barred under the provisions of section 25 of the Evidence Act, and cannot be taken into account in order to convict an accused under the NDPS Act.

(ii) That a statement recorded under section 67 of the NDPS Act cannot be used as a confessional statement in the trial of an offence under the NDPS Act.

16. The status report filed by the police reveals that the investigator arraigned the petitioner as an accused based on the disclosure statement of the main accused, from whose possession the investigator had recovered the contraband

17. The petitioner is also entitled to bail because, in somewhat similar cases where the quantity involved was either greater than or close to the amount seized in the current FIR, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has granted bail after prolonged custody, as demonstrated by the following judicial precedent.

18. In Md. Tajiur Rahaman v. The State of West Bengal, decided on 08-Nov-2024, SLP (Crl) 12225-2024, Hon'ble Supreme Court holds,

[2]. The allegations are that upon receipt of a secret information, the police conducted a raid in which the petitioner and the co-accused Rabiul Alam were arrested and 4 kgs., 920 gms of opium latex was seized.

[4]. It is not in dispute that after filing of chargesheet and framing of charges, the trial has commenced but only examination-in-chief of P.W.1 has been completed. However, there are 12 witnesses, who are proposed to be examined by the prosecution.

[5]. It may be mentioned that the High Court while declining bail to the petitioner has directed for conclusion of trial within one year. But it seems that regardless thereto, the trial has not been expedited as no effective hearing took place for the last 2/3 dates. That being so, the conclusion of trial is likely to take some reasonable time. The petitioner does not have any criminal antecedents. He has already spent one year and six months in custody. The continued incarceration of the petitioner will not serve any useful purpose.

[6]. Taking into consideration the period spent by the petitioner in custody and the fact that the petitioner does not have any criminal antecedents, we are satisfied that the conditions prescribed under Section 37 of the NDPS Act can be relaxed at this stage.

19. In Miku Kumar Yadav v. The State of Jharkhand, SLP (Crl.) No. 148-2025, decided on 07-04-2025, Hon'ble Supreme Court holds,

The petitioner is an accused for the offences punishable under Sections 414 read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code and Sections 18(b), 21(c), 22(c), and 29 of the NDPS Act. His bail application was rejected by the High Court vide impugned order dated 06.12.2024. He has already undergone more than one year and six months in jail. The allegation against the petitioner is that 3 Kgs of opium was recovered from his possession.

Office Report dated 04.04.2025 indicates that the respondent - State has not filed appearance despite service of notice.

Considering the period of incarceration of the petitioner and the entire facts and circumstances of this case, we are of the opinion that a case of bail is made out for the petitioner and therefore, the prayer for bail is allowed.

20. Per the custody certificate dated 18.08.2025, the petitioner's custody in this FIR is of 01 year, 01 months and 26 days.

21. The prolonged incarceration, generally militates against the most precious fundamental right guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution and in such a situation, the conditional liberty must override the statutory embargo created under Section 37(1)(b)(ii) of the NDPS Act¹.

22. Following the judicial precedent mentioned above, without commenting on the case's merits, and considering the petitioner's pre-trial custody, the weight of the drugs, coupled with the other factors peculiar to this case, further pre-trial incarceration is not justified at this stage, subject to the terms and conditions of this order. However, this order shall take effect from the time it is uploaded to this Court's official webpage.

23. The investigation indicates that the petitioner is not the main accused, so the petitioner's bail shall not be treated as a precedent for granting bail to the other co-accused with a higher role.

CONDITIONS:

24. Given above, provided the petitioner is not required in any other case, the petitioner shall be released on bail in the FIR captioned above, subject to furnishing bonds to the satisfaction of the concerned Court and due to unavailability before any nearest Ilaqa Magistrate or duty Magistrate. Before accepting the surety, the concerned Court must be satisfied that if the accused fails to appear, such surety can produce the accused.

25. While furnishing a personal bond, the petitioner shall mention the following personal identification details:

1.	AADHAR number
2.	Passport number (If available) and when the attesting officer/court

	considers it appropriate or considers the accused a flight risk.
3.	Mobile number (If available)
4.	E-Mail id (If available)

26. This order is subject to the petitioner's complying with the following terms.

27. The petitioner shall abide by all statutory bond conditions and appear before the concerned Court(s) on all dates. The petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence, influence, browbeat, pressurize, induce, threaten, or promise, directly or indirectly, any witnesses, Police officials, or any other person acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case or dissuade them from disclosing such facts to the Police or the Court.

28. Given the background of allegations against the petitioner, it becomes paramount to protect the members of society, detention squad and incapacitating the accused would be one of the primary options until the filing of the closure report or discharge, or acquittal. Consequently, it would be appropriate to restrict the possession of firearms. [This restriction is being imposed based on the preponderance of the evidence of probability and not of evidence of certainty, i.e., beyond a reasonable doubt; and as such, it is not to be construed as an intermediate sanction]. Given the nature of the allegations and the other circumstances peculiar to this case, the petitioner shall surrender all weapons, firearms, and ammunition, if any, along with the arms license to the concerned authority within fifteen days of release from prison and inform the Investigator of the compliance. However, subject to the Indian Arms Act, 1959, the petitioner shall be entitled to renew and reclaim them in case of acquittal in this case, provided otherwise permissible under the concerned rules. Restricting firearms would instill confidence in society; it would also restrain the accused from influencing the witnesses and repeating the offense.

29. The conditions mentioned above imposed by this court are to endeavor to reform and ensure the accused does not repeat the offense and also to block the menace of drug abuse. In Mohammed Zubair v. State of NCT of Delhi, 2022:INSC:735 [Para 28], Writ Petition (Criminal) No. 279 of 2022, Para 29, decided on July 20, 2022, A Three-Judge bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that "The bail conditions imposed by the Court must not only have a nexus to the purpose that they seek to serve but must also be proportional to the purpose of imposing them. The courts, while imposing bail conditions must balance the liberty of the accused and the necessity of a fair trial. While doing so, conditions that would result in the deprivation of rights and liberties must be eschewed."

30. In Md. Tajiur Rahaman v. The State of West Bengal, decided on 08-Nov-2024, SLP (Crl) 12225-2024, the Hon'ble Supreme Court holds in Para 7, "It goes without saying that if the petitioner is found involved in such like offence in future, the concession of bail granted to him today will liable to be withdrawn and the petitioner is bound to face the necessary consequences."

31. The significant consideration for granting bail is that the Court aims to give the petitioner another chance to course-correct, reform, and reintegrate into the community as an ideal citizen. To ensure that the petitioner also abides by the assurance made on the petitioner's behalf by not repeating the offence or indulging in any crime, it shall be desirable to impose the following additional condition.

32. This bail is conditional, with the foundational condition being that if the petitioner repeats the offense where the quantity involved is more than half of the intermediate, or commercial, or violates S. 19, 24, or 27-A of the NDPS Act, or commits any non-bailable offense which provides for a sentence of imprisonment for more than seven years, the State shall file an application to revoke this bail before the Special Judge/ Sessions Court having jurisdiction over this FIR, which shall have the authority to cancel this bail, and as per their discretion, they may cancel this bail.

33. Any observation made hereinabove is neither an expression of opinion on the case's merits nor shall the trial Court advert to these comments.

34. In Amit Rana v. State of Haryana, CRM-18469-2025 [in CRA-D-123-2020, decided on 05.08.2025], a Division Bench of Punjab and Haryana High Court in paragraph 13, holds that "To ensure that every person in judicial custody who has been granted bail or whose sentence has been suspended gets back their liberty without any delay, it is appropriate that whenever the bail order or the orders of suspension of sentence are not immediately sent by the Registry, computer systems, or Public Prosecutor, then in such a situation, to facilitate the immediate restoration of the liberty granted by any Court, the downloaded copies of all such orders, subject to verification, must be accepted by the Court before whom the bail bonds are furnished."

35. Petition allowed in terms mentioned above. All pending applications, if any, are disposed of.
