Reply filed on behalf of respondent in Court today is taken on record and copy thereof has been supplied to the counsel opposite.

It is not disputed that the orders of the Writ Court stands complied with and payments made to the petitioner, however, learned counsel for the petitioner contends that interest also should have been given to him.

In view of the compliance report, the instant petition is disposed of as having become infructuous leaving the petitioner to his remedies in law to claim interest from the respondents.
