

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners contended that the petitioners are in custody in this case since February, 2025 i.e. for last more than 07 months; the allegation levelled against the petitioners in suicide note is general in nature; the investigation has already been completed; no fruitful purpose will be served by keeping the petitioners behind the bars; they have clean and clear antecedents and are not involved in any other criminal activity except the present one. As such, learned counsel prayed for grant of bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned State counsel opposed the prayer for grant of regular bail to the petitioners by submitting that petitioner-Jaibir @ Bhola @ Jaibir Singh has been specifically named in the suicide note and a video recording was also produced by the complainant, wherein the petitioners are calling the deceased with bad names and prayed for dismissal of the bail.

5. Heard.

6. Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that investigation has already been completed; challan has been filed and the case is fixed for prosecution evidence; there is no material on both files, which suggests that the petitioners are involved in any other criminal activity; trial will take sufficient time to conclude and no fruitful purpose would be served by keeping them in custody for any further period, as concession of bail cannot be denied just as measure of punishment and it is trite principle of criminal jurisprudence that bail is rule, jail is an exception, this Court deems it a fit case to grant the concession of regular bail to the petitioners.

7. Therefore, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, both the instant petitions are allowed. The petitioners are ordered to be released on regular bail on their furnishing requisite bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate/Chief Judicial Magistrate concerned.

8. Nothing observed hereinabove shall be construed to be expression of an opinion by this Court on merits of the case. The learned Court below is directed to proceed with the matter on its own merits, lest it may prejudice the trial.

9. A photocopy of this order be placed on the file of other connected case.
