...Petitioner

vs.

State of Punjab and another

...Respondents

Coram : Hon'ble Mr. Justice N.S.Shekhawat

Present : Mr. Gourav Vir Singh Behl, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. I.P.S. Sabharwal, DAG, Punjab.

Mr. Vidul Kapoor, Advocate for Mr. Karan Sidhu, Advocate for respondent No.2.

N.S.Shekhawat J. (Oral)

1. The petitioner has filed the present petition under Section 482 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 with a prayer to grant anticipatory bail to him in case FIR No.38 dated 22.03.2025, registered under Sections 109, 118(1) of BNS, at Police Station Sadar Sangrur, District Sangrur.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner was not present at the place of occurrence and has been wrongly named by the complainant. Even no motive has been attributed to him to inflict injuries to respondent No.2/complainant. In fact, the injuries were caused by some unknown persons and the petitioner was named only on the basis of the suspicion. Later on, the parties have entered into a compromise with each other by the compromise deed (Annexure P-5) and the petitioner is ready to join the investigation.

3 On the other hand, learned State counsel has vehemently opposed the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner on the ground that serious allegations have been levelled against the present petitioner and he does not deserve the concession of bail by this Court.

4. However, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the complainant, submits that both the parties have amicably resolved all their disputes and he does not want to pursue the present case.

4. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

5. In the present case, the parties have entered into a compromise with each other by a compromise deed (Annexure P-5) and the petitioner is ready to join the investigation in the present case.

6. At this stage, without commenting any further on the merits of the case, the present petition is allowed. The petitioner is granted concession of anticipatory bail, subject to the conditions as provided under Section 482(2) of the BNSS. It will be open for the Investigating Officer to call the petitioner to join investigation, if so required, by issuing a written notice in this regard and he shall abide by the conditions mentioned in Section 482(2) of the BNSS.
