2. Against the abovesaid conviction and sentence, this appeal was filed.
3. Today learned counsel for the appellant stated at the outset that appellant do not press the appeal against the judgment of conviction; and that appellant confine his prayer only against order of sentence. It is submitted that appellant would be satisfied, in case he is sentenced to imprisonment for the period already undergone by him.
4. Learned counsel points out that offence pertains to the year 2008; that appellant was of 36 years at that time; that appellant had already undergone total sentence of 02 months and 20 days and so, he deserve to be sentenced for the period already undergone by him.

6. The custody certificate placed on record by the respondent-State would reveal that appellant had already undergone total sentence of 02 months and 20 days. It is revealed further that appellant- Sanjeev Kumar has no other criminal antecedents. He was of 36 years of age at the time of offence, which had taken place way back in 2008 i.e. 17 years back.

7. In the aforesaid facts and circumstances, it will be in the interest of justice, if the period of imprisonment is reduced to the period already undergone by the appellant, instead of sending him behind bars in the company of hardened criminals.

8. Consequently, the present appeal is partly accepted. By maintaining the impugned judgment against conviction, the order of sentence as passed by the trial Court is modified and the appellant is sentenced to imprisonment for the period already undergone by him. As far as fine is concerned, it will remain same.
