2. A statement was made by learned State counsel that the matter was under investigation and that the grievance raised by the petitioner in his representation would be duly considered before the investigation was finalized. Accordingly, the petition was disposed of.

3. The instant contempt petition has been preferred with the grievance that despite passing of the aforesaid directions, no action has been taken and there has been an inordinate delay in the investigation.

4.1 It has been stated in the said affidavit that an impartial and fair investigation has been conducted into the matter after having taken into consideration the representation submitted by the petitioner. As a result, a cross case has been registered against the opposite party, and they have been arrested. Further, in the present case also, two accused, namely Kabir Gir and Gurpreet Singh Bagga, have been arrested on 18.09.2025, and the investigation is going on. It has also been averred that a show cause notice has been issued to the initial Investigating Officer, as he had failed to register the cross case within the stipulated time.

6. The instant contempt petition is, accordingly, disposed of.

7. Rule is discharged.
