KIRTI SINGH, J.(Oral)

As per the report received from the Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court dated 25.04.2025, the parties have settled their dispute by way of amicable settlement. The parties have agreed to settle the dispute amicably as per the following terms:

(i) Both the parties have agreed to part their ways by filing a joint petition for divorce by mutual consent under Section 13-B of Hindu Marriage Act at Panipat with prior intimation to each other. It is also agreed between both the parties that the second party will pay a sum of Rs.20,00,000/- (Rupees Twenty Lacs only) along with jewellery articles to the first party. The aforesaid amount shall be the full and final amount towards the maintenance and permanent alimony for the first party and her minor daughter for past, present and future and the first party will not claim any maintenance and right in the property of the second party in future.

(ii) That it is also agreed between the parties that out of the settled amount of Rs.20,00,000/- (Rupees Twenty Lacs only), the second party will pay a sum of Rs.15,00,000/- in the shape of a Fixed Deposit (FD) in the name of his minor daughter Geerisha along with remaining amount of Rs.5,00,000/- in the shape of demand draft in favour of the first party and will hand over the same to the first party at the time of first motion statement in the petition under Section 13-B of Hindu Marriage Act to be filed by the second party within one month from today.

(iii) That it is further agreed between the parties that the second party will also hand over a gold set and three silver anklets to the first party at the time of first motion statement to be recorded in the petition under Section 13-B of Hindu Marriage Act.

(iv) It is further settled between both the parties that the second party will file a petition for quashing of the above mentioned FIR within one month from today in which the second party will have no objection and will co-operate in quashing of the said FIR in all respects such as filing of affidavit or making a statement before any Court of competent jurisdiction, if required.

(v) That it is also settled between the parties that in future the minor daughter Geerisha will live with the first party and the second party will have visiting rights to meet his minor daughter once in a month for which he will arrange meeting telephonically with the first party and will pick from the house of the first party himself and will drop her himself back to the house of the first party at his own expenses and responsibility.

(vi) That both the parties have also agreed not to file any kind of case against each other and their respective family members i.e. civil and criminal cases and complaints before any court of law, police station and public authority in future in relation to the matter settled in this settlement.

(vii) That it is also settled between the parties that both the parties will withdraw all the cases/applications filed against each other before recording the final statement before the Competent Court.

(viii) That both the parties shall remain bound by the terms of this settlement in future. That it was further agreed that both of the parties shall not have any grudge against each other in future and shall not make any type of claim in any Court of Law for any reason against each other or their family members and property after fulfilment of the terms and conditions of the settlement deed.

In view of the above, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the present petition.

Dismissed as withdrawn.
