over. The proxy counsel was made clear that let the arguing counsel appear to advance arguments in the cases. Despite call, thereafter, nobody turned up.

2. Perusal of files indicates that cases are pending since long and several opportunities have been granted to learned counsel for petitioner(s) to advance arguments but every time adjournment is sought on one ground or the other. Despite accommodating the learned counsel for petitioner(s) number of times, nobody has turned up on behalf of petitioner(s) to advance arguments. From the aforesaid conduct, it appears that learned counsel for petitioner(s) is not interested to pursue the aforesaid cases. Therefore, the same stand dismissed in default and for want of prosecution.

3. Pending miscellaneous application(s), if any, stand disposed of accordingly as well.

4. Photocopy of this order be placed on the files of connected cases mentioned above.
