Bakhshish Singh @ Bakshish Singh

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE RUPINDERJIT CHAHAL

Present: - Mr. Savreet Singh Brar, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Amit Shukla, DAG, Punjab.

RUPINDERJIT CHAHAL, J.

1. Prayer in the instant petition filed under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.31 dated 13.04.2022 registered under Section 22(c) of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 (Section 29 of the Act added later on), at Police Station Sadiq, District Faridkot.
2. Brief facts of the prosecution are that on 13.04.2022 the petitioner alongwith co-accused Lovepreet Singh were apprehended on suspicion. On search, Lovepreet Singh was found in conscious possession of 2120 intoxicant tablets of Tramadol, while 1920 intoxicant tablets of Tramadol were recovered from the petitioner.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case and he has no concern with the said offence. He further contends that mandatory provisions of the NDPS Act were not complied with at the time of alleged search and seizure. He argued that recovery of alleged contraband has already been effected from the petitioner and nothing more is to be recovered from him. The petitioner is in custody since 13.04.2022. The investigation in the case is complete and challan against the petitioner was presented on 18.08.2022. The charges were framed on 02.12.2022 and the case is now fixed for prosecution evidence. Further, co-accused Lovepreet Singh has already been granted the concession of regular bail by a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court, vide order dated 21.11.2024 passed in CRM-M-47214-2024. He further submits that the trial will take a long time to conclude and no useful purpose would be served by keeping him behind bars. Therefore, it is urged that the petition deserves to be allowed.

4. Notice of motion.

5. Learned State counsel, who has appeared on advance notice of the petition, has filed the custody certificate of the petitioner, which is taken on record. He has vehemently opposed the prayer for grant of bail by submitting that the offence committed by the petitioner is serious in nature and the recovery of alleged contraband falls under the commercial quantity. Referring to custody certificate, he has further submitted that the petitioner is convicted under one more case of similar nature meaning thereby he is a habitual offender.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties at length and after perusing the record of the case, it is evident that the petitioner is in custody for the last about 1 year 11 months, investigation is complete; challan stands presented; charges framed; prosecution evidence has already commenced, and the fact that trial may take a long time to conclude, no useful purpose would be served by detaining him in further custody. Keeping the petitioner in further detention without the prospect of the trial being concluded in the near future would be violative of his rights under Article 21 of the Constitution of India.

7. Reliance is placed upon a judgment in the case of Dataram Singh vs. State of Uttar Pradesh & Anr. 2018(2) R.C.R. (Criminal) 131, wherein Hon'ble Apex Court has held that keeping somebody behind the bars, till his guilt is proved, for an indefinite period amounts to infringement of her right to life and liberty, as enshrined under Article 21 of Constitution of India and is against the principle "bail is a rule" and "jail is an exception".

8. A two-Judge Bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, in Nandlal Mondal @ Abhay Mondal v. State of West Bengal, SLP (CrI.) No.12788/2023, granted bail to the accused after 18 months of incarceration on the ground of delay in trial in an NDPS matter involving commercial quantity of contraband. Similar relief has been granted by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in a series of judgments, namely: Md. Aliul Islam @ Aliul Islam @ Alius v. State of West Bengal, SLP (CrI.) No. 736/2024; Debrata Mondal v. State of West Bengal, SLP (CrI.) No.14970/2023; Santarul Islam @ Santa v. State of West Bengal, SLP (CrI.) No.13169/2023; Indrajit

Mondal @ Piglu v. State of West Bengal, SLP (CrI.) No.8512/2023; Narjul Islam @ Najbul Hoque v. State of West Bengal, SLP (CrI.) No.14172/2023; Subhashri Das @ Rana @ Subhoshree v. State of West Bengal, SLP (CrI.) No.15284/2023; Mithun Sk. & Anr. v. State of West Bengal, SLP (CrI.) No.16598/2023; Sk. Nasiruddin @ Nasirddin Sk. v. State of West Bengal, SLP (CrI.) No.3402/2024; Indadul Shah v. State of West Bengal, SLP (CrI.) No.12670/2023; Hanef Kharsani @ Hanef Sheikh v. Union of India; Ripon Seikh & Ors. v. State of West Bengal, SLP (CrI.) No.16663/2023; Moidul Sarkar v. State of West Bengal, SLP (CrI.) No.15668/2023; Saniya Bibi @ Soniya Bibi v. State of West Bengal, SLP (CrI.) No.2354/2024; Saddam Hossain v. State of West Bengal, SLP (CrI.) No.15496/2023; Bijon Sk. @ Golam Murselim v. State of West Bengal, SLP (CrI.) No.6046/2024; and Subhas v. State of West Bengal, SLP (CrI.) No.8823/2019.

9. Moreover, prolonged detention of the petitioner, without any likelihood of the trial being concluded in the near future, would amount to a violation of their fundamental rights guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution of India. The Hon'ble Supreme Court, in Mohd. Muslim @ Hussain v. State (NCT of Delhi), 2023 AIR SC 1648, while dealing with an NDPS case, held that the principles of fairness embodied under Article 21 of the Constitution override the statutory restrictions on grant of bail under Section 37 of the NDPS Act. Speaking through Justice S. Ravindra Bhat, the Court observed:

"20. The standard to be considered therefore, is one, where the court would look at the material in a broad manner, and reasonably see whether the accused's guilt may be proved. The judgments of this court have, therefore, emphasized that the satisfaction which courts are expected to record, i.e., that the accused may not be guilty, is only prima facie, based on a reasonable reading, which does not call for meticulous examination of the materials collected during investigation (as held in Union of India v. Rattan Malik). Grant of bail on ground of undue delay in trial, cannot be said to be fettered by Section 37 of the Act, given the imperative of Section 436A which is applicable to offences under the NDPS Act too (ref. Satender Kumar Antil supra) . Having regard to these factors the court is of the opinion that in the facts of this case, the appellant deserves to be enlarged on bail.

21. Before parting, it would be important to reflect that laws which impose stringent conditions for grant of bail, may be necessary in public interest; yet, if trials are not concluded in time, the injustice wrecked on the individual is immeasurable. Jails are overcrowded and their living conditions, more often than not, appalling."

10. As regards the submission of learned State counsel that petitioner is involved in other/one more criminal case(s), reference is placed upon the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi Vs. State of U.P. and another, 2012 (2) SCC 382 in which, it is held that the facts and circumstances of the present case are to be seen while deciding a bail application and the bail application of the petitioner cannot be rejected solely on the ground that the petitioner is involved in other/another case(s). The relevant portion of the said judgment is reproduced herein-below:-

"As observed by the High Court, merely on the basis of criminal antecedents, the claim of the second respondent cannot be rejected. In other words, it is the duty of the Court to find out the role of the accused in the case in which he has been charged and other circumstances such as possibility of fleeing away from the jurisdiction of the Court etc."

11. In view of the above, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court/Duty Magistrate/CJM concerned. It is clarified that nothing stated herein shall be construed as an expression of opinion on the merits of the case.
