State of Punjab

*.....RespondentCORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AARADHNA SAWHNEY

Present: Ms. Ashu Rana, Advocate for the petitioner.
Mr. Amit Sangwan, AAG, Punjab.

AARADHNA SAWHNEY, J (ORAL)

1. By virtue of present petition filed under Section 482 of BNSS, petitioner prays for grant of anticipatory bail in case FIR No.0045 dated 25.04.2025 under Sections 115(2), 118(1), 351(2), 3(5), 118(2) added later on vide DDR No.25 dated 30.04.2025 registered at P.S SBS Nagar.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated. The fact that the FIR was lodged after five days of unexplained delay itself raises question mark on the genuineness of the story put-forth by the complainant party. Continuing further, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that even if the allegations as alleged in the complaint are taken to be true at its face value (though not admitted), the only role attributed to the petitioner is that he used reversed side of gandasa and caused injuries upon legs of one of the injured, namely, Gurdev Singh. The injuries attributed to the petitioner are simple in nature. He submits that the petitioner is willing to join investigation as and when called upon to do so.

3. Learned State counsel, on instructions, submits that the petitioner has joined the investigation. He, however, fairly conceded that the injured Gurdev

Singh suffered grievous injury on his head (on vital part of his body), which was caused by co-accused Gurmeet Singh, whereas the injury caused by the petitioner was simple in nature.

4. Heard.

5. Keeping in view the above submissions advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner and considering the injury attributed to the petitioner as also the fact that the petitioner has joined the investigation, it is directed that the petitioner shall be admitted to anticipatory bail to the satisfaction of the Arresting/Investigating Officer. He shall join the investigation as and when called upon to do so and abide by the conditions as envisaged under Section 482(2) BNSS. Further the petitioner is directed to join investigation as and when required in future by way of written notice for such purpose to be served by Investigating Officer of this case upon the petitioner; he will not tamper with the evidence nor will influence the witnesses and will not leave the country without prior permission of the Court.

6. The petition stands allowed.
