HEMANT GUPTA, J.(Oral)

Learned counsel for the appellants, at the outset, stated that the appellants are ready to purge the contempt on payment of cost of ₹25,000/-. Mr. Sandeep Arora further states that the possession has since been taken over by the respondent-Landlady and there is no obstruction of any kind for and on behalf of the appellants in utilization of the premises owned by the respondent.

Learned counsel for the respondent with a view to close the chapter of continuing harassment, accepts the proposal given by Mr. Sandeep Arora on behalf of the appellants.

In view of the said fact, the present appeal is dismissed as withdrawn on the condition of payment of ₹25,000/- by way of Demand Draft payable to the respondent before the Registrar (Judicial) of this Court within two weeks. As and when the Demand Draft is received from the appellants, the same shall be handed over to the counsel for the respondent for onward transmission to the respondent. On payment of ₹25,000/- within the time granted, the order of sentence passed by the learned Single Bench dated 25.07.2013 will stand modified to the imprisonment already undergone. In the event the costs are not paid, the order of sentence dated 25.07.2013 shall be executed in accordance with law.
