CRM-M-1034-2025

Date of decision : 16.01.2025

Hans Raj..... Petitioner*versus*State of Punjab*..... Respondent*CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE PANKAJ JAIN

Present: Mr. Satnam Singh Gill, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Puru Jarewal, AAG, Punjab.

PANKAJ JAIN, J. (Oral)

1, Present petition has been filed under Section 483 of BNSS for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case bearing FIR No.93 dated 28.12.2022, registered for the offence punishable under Section 22 of NDPS Act, 1985 at Police Station Handesra, District SAS Nagar, Mohali.

2. Co-accused who is similarly situated stands admitted to regular bail by the Coordinate Bench observing as under:-

“2. As per the prosecution case, the present FIR was registered at the instance of ASI Om Parkash No.731/SAS Nagar, alleging therein that on 28.12.2022, when he and his colleagues were conducting barricading operations at Ambala to Naraingarh Road, near Nagla turn, Handesra, the petitioner and co-accused Hans Raj were allegedly apprehended and they were found in possession of 7000 intoxicating capsules of Proxyband Spas each and following the alleged recovery of the contraband, the impugned FIR was filed against the petitioner and the co-accused.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner inter alia contends that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the present case. He further submits that the petitioner is in custody for the last 02 years and 09 days and he is not involved in any other case. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that the investigation in the present case is complete, challan stands presented; charges have been framed and out of total 10 prosecution witnesses, only 07 PWs have been examined so far and the trial is likely to take considerable time to conclude, therefore, no fruitful purpose would be served by detaining the petitioner behind the bars.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has referred to a judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court passed in "Satender Kumar Antil Vs. Central Bureau of Investigation and another", 2022(10) SCC 51, to contend that the Hon'ble Supreme Court has discussed the serious issue with regard to repeated adjournments and its effect upon the Right to Life under Article 21 of the Constitution of India. He has also referred to a latest judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court passed in Criminal Appeal No.943 of 2023 titled as "Mohd. Muslim @ Hussain Vs. State (NCT of Delhi)" decided on 28.03.2023 to contend that when there is a long delay in the trial and especially when it is not the fault of the accused and in that situation even the effect of Section 37 of the NDPS Act will be diluted in the given facts and circumstances of each and every case.

5. Per contra, learned State Counsel, has opposed the prayer for grant of regular bail to the petitioner on the ground that the petitioner was found in conscious possession of 7000 tablets containing salt of Tramadol Hydrochloride, which is commercial quantity and, therefore, he does not deserve the concession of regular bail. However, he could not refute that out of total 10 prosecution witnesses, only 07 PWs have been examined till date; the petitioner is not involved in any other case; he is in custody for the last 02 years and 09 days and the trial may take a considerable time to conclude.

6. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

7. In view of the custody period undergone by the petitioner, it is apposite to refer to a few judgments of Hon'ble Supreme Court in this regard wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court has granted the concession of bail solely on ground of long custody :-
