State of Haryana and others

...Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE TRIBHUVAN DAHIYA

Present:- Mr. Vivek Sheoran, Advocate for the petitioner

TRIBHUVAN DAHIYA, J. (Oral)

The petition has been filed inter alia seeking a writ of mandamus directing the respondents to consider and decide the petitioner's legal notice dated 12.11.2024, Annexure P-3, and grant him arrears of back wages along with interest and full-service benefits at the time of retirement.

2. It is contended that the petitioner was appointed as contractual Generator Operator by the second respondent/Management in the aided Polytechnic College in 1993, and was removed from service in 1995. He challenged the removal before the Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court, Rohtak, and an award was passed ordering his reinstatement with fifty per cent back wages on 14.10.2002. The Management challenged the award before this Court by filing Civil Writ Petition No.4803 of 2003, which was disposed of vide order dated 18.10.2005, Annexure P-1, on the basis of a compromise entered into by the petitioner with the Management, based upon which he was taken back in service. It is further contended that the petitioner is due to retire in two months, and has submitted legal notice, dated 12.11.2024, to the College Principal for the claimed benefits which may be ordered to be decided.

3. It is apparent on record that the petitioner was reinstated in service pursuant to a compromise entered into by him with the private Management. The Polytechnic College where he is working is a private College run by the Management. In case the petitioner has any grievance against it, or wants his legal notice, dated 12.11.2024, to be decided, he has an efficacious alternative remedy to file appeal before the Educational Tribunal concerned, and this Court is not inclined to entertain the petition on that account.

4. Accordingly, the petition stands disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to approach the Educational Tribunal concerned for the relief claimed in the petition.
