VIKRAM AGGARWAL, J. (ORAL)

At the outset, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that a speaking order has duly been passed, as a result of which the present contempt petition has been rendered infructuous. He further submits that the petitioner shall, if so advised, avail all such other remedies as shall be admissible in law against the said order.

In view of the statement given by learned counsel for the petitioner, the present contempt petition is disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.
