

128 IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

CR-3147-2025 (O&M)

Date of decision : 07.07.2025

Rakesh Singh

...Petitioner

Vs.

Smt. Neelam Rani

...Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Brajesh Kumar Kaundal, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr Naveen Kumar, Advocate for the respondent.

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J. (Oral)

1. In this revision petition, the petitioner prays for setting aside the order passed on 24.04.2025 by the Family Court while dismissing their joint application for waiving off the statutory period (cooling off period) of six months between recording statement of the parties in the first and second motion.
2. The statements of the parties in first motion were recorded on 27.02.2025 and the case has now been adjourned to 04.09.2025. It is contended by learned counsel representing the parties that there are no chances of reconciliation and parties are leaving separately since July 2022.
3. Learned counsel representing the respondent submits that the parties have taken a final decision to part their ways and he has no objection if the revision petition filed by the petitioner is allowed.

4. As already noticed, the statement of the parties at the time of first motion was recorded on 27.02.2025 and more than 04 months have already elapsed.

5. There is no change in the stand of the parties, hence, the revision petition is allowed, particularly, when the parties now want to move on in their life. The impugned order is modified to the extent that the Family Court would record their statements in the second motion on 17.07.2025 and thereafter, proceed with the matter in accordance with law.

6. All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
