between the parties and on completion of investigation, the police has presented challan but it will take time for the trial to conclude; that in the given circumstances, no purpose is going to be served by prolonging judicial custody of the petitioner.

3. Present petition is resisted by the State counsel who submits that the petitioner actively participated at the time of commission of snatching. However, the State counsel has not disputed the fact that the petitioner is incarcerated since 23.12.2024 and during investigation, no incriminating article was recovered from the petitioner and further, after completion of investigation, challan has been presented but till date, charges are not framed.

4. Mr. Mohit Pilania, Advocate, who has put in appearance on behalf of the complainant and victim, submits that now compromise has been effected between the parties and he is having no objection if the present petition is allowed.

5. I have considered the submissions made by the counsel for the parties.

6. Admittedly, FIR in this case was registered against unknown persons and the petitioner was nominated as accused only thereafter and is incarcerated since 23.12.2024 and after completion of investigation, challan has been presented by the police but it will take time for the trial to terminate as till date, charges are not framed. Further, it appears that parties have entered into compromise. In view of above, no fruitful purpose is going to be served by keeping the petitioner in custody for any longer period.
