DEEPAK GUPTA, J.(Oral)

On the last date of hearing, following order was passed:-

“The Advocate through whom the appeal was filed has since been elevated to the Hon’ble Bench of this Court.

Notices sent to the appellants have been received back with the report that all the three of them have since expired.

None of the legal representatives of the deceased-appellants has approached this Court.

In the interest of justice, adjourned to 05.12.2024.

Letters be sent at the addresses of all the three appellants which may be served upon any of their family members/legal heirs in order to elicit as to whether they are interested in pursuing this appeal or not.”

2. Today, notice sent at the address of all the three appellants has been received back with the report that none of the family members of the said deceased-appellants agreed to accept the notice.

3. Nobody has put in appearance for the appellants. In these circumstances when the appellants have expired; none of their family members have accepted the notice; no application to bring on record the LRs of deceased-appellants has been moved, this Court is left with no option, but to dismiss in default this appeal for want of prosecution. Order accordingly.
